I'M BAREFOOT4 WILBERSON

Name: Wilberson

Location: Haiti

Wilberson is a bright 13-year old boy, the oldest of three children, being raised by his father. When we met Wilberson at a shoe distribution we learned that he shared one pair of shoes with all three siblings. He told us that his happiest place is in the classroom and dreams of being a doctor to care for people in his community. A new pair of shoes will help Wilberson make the one hour walk to school, keeping him healthy and most importantly in the classroom!
